EDUCATING ON THE NATURE & DIGNITY OF WOMEN

Endow is a Catholic apostolate for women. We call women together to study the important documents of the church. Through Endow groups, women encounter their identity as daughters of God, enabling them to grow in their faith and ultimately discover their mission in life.

Join a movement of women who want to cultivate deep friendships by studying the rich spiritual and intellectual documents of the Catholic Church! An Endow Study is an 8-12 week commitment. The Method is simple: gather together, read the chapter aloud and discuss the questions at the end of each section. There is no preparation and no homework required.

Catholic Social Teaching

Endow's newest study guide on Catholic Social Teaching provides a framework for understanding human freedom and what is required for human flourishing. Rooted in God's plan for all humanity, this unique presentation of Catholic Social Teaching takes a historical approach. Beginning in the Garden of Eden with the story of Creation and the Fall, it then journeys through the Gospels, presenting Christ Himself and finally examines the key Magisterial documents and influential figures from the Modern Era in their own historical context. This study covers the dignity of the human person, social doctrine in the Old and New Covenants, the Enlightenment and the de-humanization of culture, subsidiarity, totalitarianism and personalism, among other topics. It also examines how Mary, St Therese of Lisieux, St Edith Stein, Pope St John Paul II, St Teresa of Calcutta, Dorothy Day and others embodied Catholic Social Teaching in their lives and work. Women will come to understand the themes and principles of Catholic Social Teaching in an entirely new light and will discover their own responsibility to apply the principles of Catholic Social Teaching to renew the culture in our time.
